

Get Ready for the Kings

Tonight, the Kings are coming!

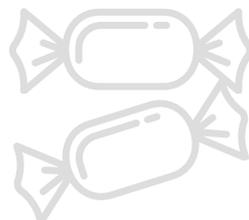

I will go to the parade with my family, and my little brother and I will get lots of sweets! We will see the three kings and we will clap our hands. It will be cold. We will need our coats, gloves, scarves and hats. I love going to the parade!

If we've been good, tomorrow we will find our presents in the living room, under the Christmas tree! I hope the kings don't bring me coal. We will all open our presents, one by one, and we will take lots of photos.

At lunch time, my dad will cook cannelloni and my mum will make soup with big pasta shells. For dessert, we will eat tortell de reis. I don't like tortell de reis, but I like wearing the crown!
