Target Language

Questions

- Hey, how's it going?
- What have you been up to?

Model responses

- Not a lot, really
- This and that
- School and home
- I'm looking forward to the weekend

Lesson Overview

This song introduces informal, real-life English expressions that students of this age group can use with friends and classmates. Through music, repetition, and movement, learners practise both understanding and producing natural spoken language in a relaxed, engaging way.

Lesson Steps

1. Introduce the language

Use the accompanying images (video or PDF) to present the key phrases. Check understanding through discussion or translation and practise pronunciation together.

2. Teach the song and movements

Teach the song gradually, line by line, including the hand movements. Students sing along and practise the actions to support memory and engagement.
